

Vision Statements

1. To become the leading provider of eBusiness solutions that are open, inner-operable, and scalable.
2. Our software is used as the core of the industry.
3. To become the dominant B2B solution.
4. To be the embedded technology that everyone uses and to be the “partners” company.
5. We organize general-purpose platforms that are manageable, scalable, and flexible.
6. To be the leader in B2B business relationship management – not only connecting companies, but managing the entire relationship over time.
7. To create the opportunity to dominate the world.
8. We provide the industry’s most complete and open software platform to power and manage interactions around business and electronic marketplaces regardless of existing IT infrastructure.
9. Extricity software solutions enable companies to manage the internal and external sharing of information between business partners over the Internet.
10. Extricity’s software platform is designed for companies to share information and business processes over the Internet.
11. Beyond simple data exchange. Extricity software platforms focus on the processes between business and the technology.
12. We help companies do business together. Over the Internet. Plain & Simple.
13. Extricity software enables businesses to manage/ share information and does commerce over the Internet. What B2B solution can we power for you?
14. Relationships between large corporations are complex & those are the relationships we simplify.
15. Passionate Software Solutions unifying Businesses.
16. The process engine to build trading communities.
17. A leading B2B software platform to share information and manage commerce between business partners over the Internet.
18. Extricity is a leading provider of B2B software products, which enable companies to manage internal and external information sharing and interactions between software applications and business partners over the Internet.